Dear Parents, Teachers & Students,

GRADUATION:
Last night students, staff and families celebrated the special time of the Grade six students graduating from Goonawarra Primary School.
The students delivered well prepared speeches, dances and even a special song.
Thank you to the staff involved who made the night such a special occasion for every student.
We wish all the Graduating Class of 2013 all the best with their further students and future endeavours.

Sunningdale Avenue Children’s Centre is pleased to advice that the redevelopment of the Children’s Centre is completed. We thank all the Goonawarra community for their patience during the building works and look forward to building strong partnerships with the local community.

As a result of the redevelopment, the children’s service has Child Care Vacancies available for 2014. Please feel free to contact Kirsten or Corina on 9744 2845 or call in to discuss your care needs.

On an exciting note, we are also very pleased to advise that Sunningdale Avenue Children’s Centre was successful in receiving an ‘Exceeding’ Quality Rating Assessment under the National Quality Standards for Early Childhood Education and Care.

P.S. Congratulations from the Whole Goonawarra Community on your recent excellent assessment and the new outstanding modern facilities.

The area is so fortunate to have high quality services such as your Child Care Centre, so readily available.
